covenant

The unity of the church is the gift of the Spirit and a task of the church. We hereby CALL INTO COVENANT our respective Synods, Dioceses and Conferences and COMMIT OURSELVES to the following actions. In behalf of the unity of the church, WE WILL:

1. pray for each other, particularly at the principal Sunday celebration;
2. sponsor seasonal prayer services, especially during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity;
3. encourage shared lectionary studies;
4. promote pulpit exchanges in accord with the respective guidelines of each tradition;
5. encourage cooperation among member churches in providing premarital preparation for ecumenical marriages;
6. encourage shared religious formational and educational events, e.g. youth ministry, vacation Bible school, living room dialogue;
7. develop joint efforts in evangelism and social justice;
8. develop covenants among our congregations, institutions and chaplaincies;
9. support statewide, regional and local LARCUM Conferences, and establish annually a joint meeting of our ecumenical bodies;
10. encourage each diocese and synod to develop supportive prayer services and covenanting models for its congregations through their respective ecumenical and liturgical committees;
11. urge congregations to study the existing dialogues among our churches;
12. develop covenants among schools and academies for shared programs;
13. ask congregations to develop and reflect on their cooperative ministries to discover areas of convergence among our four churches;
14. sponsor shared retreats and formational events for clergy and parish leadership;
15. develop campus ministry covenants among Catholic Campus Ministry, Canterbury Association, Lutheran Student Union, and Wesley Foundation, and support covenants at existing ecumenical ministries and with college chaplains;
16. seek ways to coordinate program and planning at the district/synodical/diocesan/conference level;
17. collaborate at the judicatory level on justice issues and social concerns;
18. review and evaluate this Covenant annually at a meeting of the state LARCUM Committee representatives with Bishops;
19. establish goals annually which advance this Covenant;
20. celebrate the renewal of this Covenant annually at the statewide LARCUM conference.

May the Holy Spirit, who has brought us to this moment of covenanting, bring us to ever deepening levels of unity. To this end we affix our names and recommend it to our respective judicatories, this 1st day of December, 2006.

speaker

Father James Loughran, SA

Father James Loughran, SA, is a Franciscan Friar of the Atonement. Since 2002, he has been Director of Graymoor Ecumenical & Interreligious Institute, a ministry of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement located at the Interchurch Center in New York City and also at Graymoor, the motherhouse of the Friars in Garrison, New York. GEII publishes the monthly journal Ecumenical Trends and produces materials each year for the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25). Father Loughran is editor of Ecumenical Trends. Previous to directing GEII, Father Loughran was Director of the Commission on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs for the Archdiocese of New York, from 1994–2002. During that period he headed up local bilateral dialogues between Catholics, Episcopalians, Lutherans, Jews and Muslims.

Hailing originally from Lowell, MA, Father Loughran professed his vows as a Franciscan Friar of the Atonement in 1983. Upon completion of his Master of Divinity at the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC in 1989 he was ordained to the priesthood. He first served the Friars' parishes in St. Catherine's, Jamaica and in Sterling, VA before taking up the ecumenical post in New York in 1994.

Father Loughran has served on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops dialogue with the National Council of Synagogues and on the Faith and Order Commission of the National Council of Churches. He invests his time in the ecumenical and interreligious movements by being part of the faculty of a summer course on ecumenism every year at the Centro Pro Unione in Rome and by lecturing to catechists in the Archdiocese of New York as well as speaking at parishes and non Catholic Christian congregations. He also speaks at events during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.
